PRESS OPINION.

The Bradford Chronicle and Mail of Monday, May 5, says:—"The supplement is devoted to an extensive consideration of the Reciprocity agitation, and it contains an exhaustive and capably written reply to the letter of Sir Louis Mallet, recently addressed to the President of the Cobden Club. There are several contributors to this portion of the British Empire, and Reciprocity is considered from the following 'points of view':—'Manufactured Goods,' 'International Trading,' 'Agriculture,' and 'Labour.' In every 'point' Sir Louis Mallet receives a severe and well-deserved 'thrashing.' All persons who take an interest in the claims of Reciprocity ought to read these articles, which are worth keeping for reference; for they are as easy means of furnishing replies to some of the stupid assertions which are being persistently put forward by Free Traders."
